

Flood Resilience Round Table

Peter Caplehorn
Deputy Chief Executive

Construction Products Association

We represent

85% of the industry by value

directly providing 313,000 jobs

working across 21,000 companies

with a turnover of more than £50 billion

The Roundtable Review

The Property Flood Resilience Roundtable Review

Chaired by
Dr Peter Bonfield OBE FREng

Supported by DEFRA and Environment Agency

The Roundtable Review

Time to take the response to flooding seriously

Pete Bonfield undertaken a number of reviews.

Focus on property damage and resilience.

Mechanisms for repair but also prevention.

Prevention if possible but also reducing distress, waste, cost, disruption, economic hardship.

As Industry, Government, Interested Parties can we do better?

The Roundtable Review

Time to take the response to flooding seriously

Five task groups looking at-

- Immediate Action
- Communication and Behavioural Change
- Standards Certification and Skills
- Enabling Resilience
- One Stop Shop

To be published soon....

The Roundtable Review

Time to take the response to flooding seriously

Setting out the case for joined up action.

Achieving better responses.

More resilience at every level.

Close cooperation between all agencies.

Focus on property resilience.

Immediate response.

Homes and businesses matter

Agreed standards.

One approach.

The Roundtable Review

This afternoon-

- 13.40 14.10 Government Position
- 14.10- 14.25 Financial perspective
- 14.25- 14.40 Management and Standards
- 14.40- 14.55 Break
- 14.55- 16.10 Case Studies
- 16.10- 16.40 General Discussion
- 16.40- 16.50 AOB
- 16.50 - 16.55 Closing Remarks